

WOMAN'S LOVE

(Neil Murray)

Well a man may be able to read and write
Or with his bare hands win a fight
Or a man can learn to play this tune
Say you're pretty cool to do what that man do
But I tell you it don't mean very much
If you're without a woman's love
And it won't do, it won't do ya very much luck
To be without a woman's love

Well a man might be famous with lots of dough
Or just sweat and toil 'til his days are gone
And some bust their guts for little or no reward
And all they've got to show
Is thirty-five years on the board
And it beats me how they can still come home and laugh
Make you think that it's never been that hard

Well a man might be held in highest esteem
He may appear in every young boy's dream
But that won't do, that won't do much for him anymore
If he's without a woman's love
And all of his achievements
They don't really count for much
If he's without a woman's love

Yes, a man may appear to be pretty smart
But that won't stop him from a-tearin' his heart
If he can't hold, hold a woman's love
If he can't hold a woman's love
And all of his achievements
They don't really count for much
If he's without a woman's love

You gotta hold, hold a woman's love
You gotta hold a woman's love
